Further Information

As a matter of routine in each case, the Head will write to the candidate's last school requesting a report on the pupil's work and character.
A copy of the current standard terms and conditions will be provided if a place is offered, or by request.
Please note the completion of a registration form does not guarantee a place, which will always depend upon a candidate satisfying the Schools' admission criteria. You are advised to make a copy of this form before returning it.
